

PIANIST SUE KELLER PERFORMS
“RAGTIME: A RETROSPECTIVE”

On Sunday, February 25 at 2 p.m., Sue Keller will present a free piano concert of ragtime music at the Des Plaines Public Library. “Ragtime: a Retrospective” will feature primarily the ragtime music of the early 1900s. Advance registration is required. This is a centennial celebration program.

Sue Keller is recognized as one of the world’s top female ragtime pianists. She has traveled the world sharing her love of joyous ragtime music. Her energetic concert at the library will include tunes by noted ragtime greats such as Scott Joplin and Eubie Blake, along with some contemporary pieces.

Keller’s love of ragtime music began when she graduated from college in 1974. Since then, she has recorded numerous ragtime, jazz and blues CDs. In addition, to promote ragtime, she has established The Ragtime Press, which is devoted to the publication of original sheet music.

To register for the performance, please phone the Registration desk at 847-376-2787 or register online.